Funeral of Albert Safford.

Friday afternoon, Nov. 3, Albert R. Safford, one of the cidest members of Westminster church, a man earnest in Christian life and character and thoroughly respected by all who knew him, met with what eight days later, proved a fatal accident, having been dragged quite a distance by a partly broken young horse. His funeral was held at his home Wednesday afternoon, the rooms all being full of mourning friends. His pastor, Rev. T. Edward Davies conducted the service at the house and at the grave, giving the people a message from Mr. Safford's dying bed: "Do not tell them, at my funeral, that I attained, but that I tried;" and urging each one present to keep trying to attain the ideal, the highest possible.
